IX. Description of Reasonable Alternatives to Regulatory Action:

(a) Alternatives to Regulation Change:

No alternatives were identified.

(b) No Change Alternative:

Trawl nets would not be allowed in District 3 upstream of the Carquinez Bridge, resulting in the exclusion of a small area of fishable waters.

(c) Consideration of Alternatives:

In view of the information currently possessed, no reasonable alternative considered would be more effective in carrying out the purposes for which the regulation is proposed, or would be as effective and less burdensome to affected private persons than the proposed regulation.

X. Impact of Regulatory Action:

The potential for significant statewide adverse economic impacts that might result from the proposed regulatory action has been assessed, and the following initial determinations relative to the required statutory categories have been made:

(a) Significant Statewide Adverse Economic Impact Directly Affecting Businesses, Including the Ability of California Businesses to Compete with Businesses in Other States:

The proposed action will not have a significant statewide adverse economic impact directly affecting business, including the ability of California businesses to compete with businesses in other states. The proposed regulations provide additional commercial fishing areas and opportunity without increasing compliance costs, and thus may increase earnings potential for commercial trawlers and other fishing-related businesses.

(b) Impact on the Creation or Elimination of Jobs Within the State, the Creation of New Businesses or the Elimination of Existing Businesses, or the Expansion of Businesses in California: None

(c) Cost Impacts on a Representative Private Person or Business:

The agency is not aware of any cost impacts that a representative private person or business would necessarily incur in reasonable compliance with the proposed action.

(h) Effect on Housing Costs: None
Updated Informative Digest/Policy Statement Overview

Existing regulations establish the areas, season, and other aspects for commercial trawl nets used inside the Golden Gate Bridge. This fishery targets Bay shrimp (Crangon spp.) and several species of bait fish, including yellowfin goby, staghorn sculpin, and plainfin midshipman.

Section 119 was added to Title 14, California Code of Regulations (CCR), in 1979 and limited trawl nets to Districts 2, 12, and 13, as did the Fish and Game Code prior to 1979. In 1985, subsection 119(e), Title 14, CCR, was amended to limit trawls to the portions of these districts lying westerly of a projected straight line beginning at Point Edith on the south and extending through Buoy “6” to the shoreline on the north. However, there is a small portion of District 3 from the Carquinez Bridge to the Point Edith-Buoy 6 boundary line that is currently not open to commercial trawl nets.

The proposed regulation change would add District 3 from upstream of the Carquinez Bridge to the current Point Edith-Buoy 6 boundary line to the trawl permit areas, as requested by commercial Bay shrimp trawlers.

This proposed regulation change would permit trawling along the southern shoreline of Carquinez Strait (Contra Costa County), potentially increasing bay shrimp landings some seasons and years.

Plainfin midshipman is proposed to be included in the list of allowable species for this permit, pursuant to Section 8832, Fish and Game Code.

The reference to the Menlo Park office is proposed to be removed, as the office is now closed and this permit is available at all Department offices that issue commercial permits. Other minor changes are also proposed for regulation clarity.

Subsection 119(c), Title 14, CCR, is proposed to be removed and the following subsections renumbered. This subsection restates Fish and Game Code subsection 7857(k) requirements and is proposed to be removed to reduce unnecessary regulation duplication.

Change the form used to collect data on this fishery from DFG 176 (10/89), to FG 2025 (new 11/2005).

Form DFG (10/89) was designed to capture data for the deep water trawl fisheries and does not provide for the species typically taken in the bay trawl fishery. Form FG 2025 (new 11/2005), Bay Shrimp Log will better capture the data needed by the Department to monitor the bay trawl fishery.

The proposed changes were adopted by the Commission on December 9, 2005.
At the May 5, 2005 Commission meeting, a commercial bay shrimp trawler requested that the open area for shrimp trawling be expanded. The Commission directed the Department to review the historic and existing regulations and statutes, as well as possible water flow and salinity changes in the areas of San Francisco Bay mentioned by the trawler. After its review of the relevant information, the Department presented its proposal to the Commission to add that portion of District 3 upstream of the Carquinez Bridge and lying westerly of the Point Edith-Buoy 6 boundary line to the area open to trawling, but did not support the trawler’s proposal to open Grizzly and Honker bays because of concerns for listed and sensitive species.

Section 119 was added to Title 14, California Code of Regulations (CCR), in 1979 and limited trawl nets to Districts 2, 12, and 13, as did the Fish and Game Code prior to 1979. In 1985, subsection 119(e), Title 14, CCR, was amended to limit trawls to the portions of these districts lying westerly of a projected straight line beginning at Point Edith on the south and extending through Buoy “6” to the shoreline on the north. There is a small portion of District 3 upstream from the Carquinez Bridge and lying westerly of the Point Edith-Buoy 6 boundary line that was inadvertently omitted from the area open to commercial trawl nets.

The proposed regulation change would add District 3 from upstream of the Carquinez Bridge to the current Point Edith-Buoy 6 boundary line to the trawl permit areas.
